PURE MILK FOR BABIES

In the feeding of children a supply of pure milk is of the utmost importance, for a young infant is quickly upset by partially souring milk. The "Allenburys" Milk Foods are made from perfectly fresh milk, and the method of manufacture absolutely precludes all risk of contamination with noxious germs. A perfect substitute for the natural food of the child is obtained and vigorous growth and health are promoted. No diarrhoza or digestive troubles need be feared when the "Allenburys" Milk Foods are given. The Milk Foods are made in a minute by the addition of hot water only.

DUPLICATE KEYS STOLEN AND THE CHURCH ENTERED. DARING WORK IN THE DARK.

After the burglary at Bothwell, on the nigh othwell White Rose 1 Oulton of Boxing Day, comes this week news of a similar daring breakage into private premises at Lofthouse, the Rev. G. H. Scott's house. tothwell Parish Ch & Methley United and the church adjoining, having been burgled between half-past eleven on Monday night and seven o'clock on Tuesday morning. On the date named the Vicarage was securely locked up for the night, the occupants of the house being all abed shortly before midnight. Next morning the house-keeper was down stairs shortly after seven o'clock and at once gave an RESOLUTE KICKING BY THE HOME alarm, for she found the house very consider ably upset, contents of drawers, &c, being strewn about. Her purses, which she had kept in some drawers were found lying on the table -open and empty. The contents had amounted to £4 10s in gold, silver coins bringing up the total amount to over £5. On examination of the premises it was found that the thief or thieves had effected an entrance to the house through the cellar grating. The door leading from the cellar to the cellar steps was fastened with a hesp, on the side of the steps, to unlose which the burglar had cut a hand-way through the door Access being thus so far secured, another barrier was encountered at the top of the cellar steps, the door leading into the passage being locked. A similar hole in the pannel key turned. Entry to the down stairs rooms was then a matter of ease, for although each were locked, the intruder had the keys on his side and his progress was little opposed. All the rooms on the ground floor had been entered and ransacted. In a looked drawer in a writing desk on the dining room table duplicate keys were found for the Church safe (The other keys Mr. Scott had with him i his bedroom). These were secured, as also the keys by which entry to the Church was to be made. The safe, which was a strong iron one, practically burglar proof and built int

It is also a curious fact that whilst entry was gained at the chancel end of the Church they eft by the main door facing the highway at the West end, the key being in the lock on the inside of the door. DEBT.

On Saturday last the Rothwell Wesleyan Methodists continued their effort to clear their school buildings of debt, £170 being the amount required to place the trustees in the happy position of having first class-class hapel and school accommodation absolutely free from financial burdens. The two preceding days of the three days' effort realised £66 6s 9d; this to an outsider or one not familiar with what course the stall-holders generally pursue, would seem a very low figure indeed and one that was not likely to be brought up to the desired amount. As we said, however, in our last issue, Sa urday was expected to be a big day for receipts, for it was known that several large amounts in the hands of the stall-holders must then be paid over. T. Thomas, of Middleton, to be allowed to transfer the contract to take the swill, to Mr. Charles Eddison, of Hunslet, from the end of the present half-year. This the Committee agreed to. The report of the Ladies Committee was received and found satisfactory. It was agreed that the Board be recommended o purchase not more than 30 tons of sleepers for fire-wood at 21s 3d per ton, from Messre Thos. W. Ward, Ltd., Mr. Lynch to do the carting at 2s per ton.

Mr. Butterick said he took exception to minute, that being in relation to Mr. Thomas contract and its transference to another person n his opinion it was not the right and proper ning to do. He had no objection to Thomas withdrawing from his contract, but what he did object to was its transference another man without the contract being advertised. The proposal was bad policy, favoured sub-letting and what the Board had always put its foot upon in the past. He proposed that the minutes be confirmed with this exception.

Later a donation of 9s 9d was forthcoming mittee. He opposed the recommendation on Hettie Armitage £1 7s, Misses Varley £1 7s per Mr. J. A timely message to all whose skins are showing the baneful effects of winter confineapplication for power to levy a threepenny Vice-Chairman for their services during the ment, bad weather, and the change of season, comes from Miss S. Macarthur, of Pirley Hill Bridge, East Shieldhill, Falkirk, who said to a ocal reporter :- " About three years ago my face and body began to break out in small red pimples. As soon as one lot of pimples came to a head, burst, discharged their matter, and died away, others would follow in greater number. I soon got quite alarmed, and when I was told to take plenty of medicine, as it was my blood that was impure. I followed the advice thoroughly. It did me no good, and after I had tried several preparations, and taken medical advice, I was still suffering acutely. The irritation and disfigurement almost distracted me. I could not sleep at night, and it was a great trouble to me to meet people. " At last I tried Zam-Buk, and one or two applications made a decided improvement. The irritation was not nearly so bad, and my skin felt really benefitted. I kept on using Zam-Buk regularly, and in a few weeks I was completely cured. My skin is now perfectly clear and healthy, and it is over three months since I was cured by Zam-Buk." Miss Macarthur's experience teaches that

ROTHWELL STREET ACCIDENTS. On Saturday night last, when Commercial Street, was thronged with crowds who had been at the football matches, and the street was about at its busiest, a horse, belonging to Min S. S. Lewis, greengrocer, of Robin Hood, broke loose from a dray and careered wildly down the street. By some means it appears the bar bulwhich the shafts of the vehicle were attached to the body of the dray had become detached on one side. The shafts dropped on to the horse's hind legs which made it restive, and the waggon swerved sideways on to the causeway, (the horse having broken away). The vehicle ran into the shop window of Mr. Keitel, pork butcher, breaking two large squares and splintering the woodwork. Lewis was thrown off the dray and injured slightly on the head. The horse ran up Clayton's Yard and down again when

P. S. Bacon, of Rothwell, said that he saw defendant in the lane, and he was very drunk. He was fighting with another man, and he went up and spoke to them. They refused to ge away and he took hold of Learoyd. He was proceeding down the lane with him when defendant kicked him on the legs and struck him on the mouth.

P. C. Barnes gave corroborative evidence as also Thomas Umpleby, groom, of Oulton, who said the defendant was drunk and fighting.

He afterwards saw Bacon struggling with the man, who kicked the sergeant. The crowd lill-used and hindered the police.

Mr. Willey sought to put questions as to how the defendant came by marks of violence on the face but Mr. Jones successfully objected.

Defendant was called, and said that he resided with his father and mother and had worked as one place for 11 years.

Defendant denied that he was fighting of the 24th uit, he said he neither kicked nor struck P. S. Bacon, The officer mrt a hord.

CRICKET NOTES. The Rothwell first eleven were playing at Morley-the Parish Church team of that place -on Saturday last, but again the honour of noting a victory to their credit is debarred us. The home team who batted first set them just a moderate figure, 78 being the aggregate of their eleven batsmen. Fox was the only Boddiller to reach double figures with 1 only 44 being the result of the efforts of the aleven men-five of whom failed to get a run

The second elevens of the above were playing on the Bothwell ground, play resulting in a close and exciting finish. The visitors batted first and made 74 runs, their highes scorer being Holroyd with 21. Barnett wa very effective with the ball taking six wickets for 22 runs. When Bothwell's last men went to the wicket only four runs were needed for a tle, 'stage fright' perhaps having some-thing to do with failure to make more than one run, the inninge closing for 70. Thurwell made 14, Faulkiner 12, and J. Seanor and E. Fex (not out) 11 each.

The Carlton fixture with the East Ardsley team on Saturday last was looked upon as H Wall 4 for 14. a very important one in which the club's best talent would be required to cope with the Ardslevites whose players are the only unbeaten eleven in the Wakefield and District league. It was ill luck therefore that the Carlton Committee found they would b minus one or two of their top men, J being easy chances to Cromack and Holroyd. Oxley also dropped one, but this was not s expensive a mistake as the others, Bedford's wicket only counting 8 runs all told. At 99 the innings closed and although the figures might be considered fairly high for a soft wicket there were those who thought the homesters might hold their own. J. Ashton was the hero of the Carlton trundlers, bowling 15 overs, five of which were maidens, and taking 6 wickets for 21 runs. On the visitors taking the field there was such a debaole as never before witnessed on the Carlton ground. All the wickets fell for eleven runs-the lowest total the club has registered since its formation. This record deserves giving in detail, the fall of the wickets being 1 for 0. 2 for 1, 8 for 1, 4 for 3, 5 for 8, 6 for 6, 7 fo 8, 8 for 9, 9 for 10, and 10 for 11. This is the first time Carlton have been beaten on

Carlton second took first innings in the ROTHWELL 2ND v. MORLEY PARISH match with Ardsley second on the ground of the last named. Towards a total of 62, B. Fozzard scored 14 and Bell 10. This total was not sufficient to avoid defeat, the homesters responding with 64 for 5 wickets, Austin

The Robin Hood eleven entertained Horsforth on the Sharp Lane enclosure on Saturday afternoon last. Batting first the visitors made a total of 88, 26 being to the credit of W. Chambers, 16 to Firth and 14 to Fairburn. The home team were disposed of for 54. Percy Wormald again being top scorer, making 14. T. Holroyd was given out lbw when he had made 10, none of the other players getting beyond the units.

118 for six wickets was the total set the Rothwell ' Wednesday ' eleven at Armley, on Wednesday afternoon. Pollard not out 36, B. Atkinson 27 (of Lofthouse), and J. Walker 11 (one of his playing companions, both of whom were spending the afternoon with their Burley cricketing friends), with Riley 17, being the most conspicuous batsmen of the home team. Strange though it may seem the feature of the Rothwell batting was the bowling of their opponents, Biley securing all the wickets (2 c. and b., 3 stumped, caught Scargill, and 4 clean bowled. This performance at the comparatively small cost of 6 runs is one which rarely happens, and is individual executant. Riley's 10 wickets only Seanor 1 for 14; L Ineson 3 for 29. very creditable alike to the team and the cost him 18 runs, the balance being scored off the unsuccessful trundler. The Rothwell batemen to gain premier positions were Newton who made 24, and Naylor who when THERE'S COMFORT AND HEALING he had made 15 was given out stumped when we should say he was anything but out of his ground. Curiosity is being awakened as to Old-folks' coughs, usually an all-the-yearwhich of the Rothwell playing elevens is round trouble, are the accumulated result of BREAD WITH CURBANTS IN. This according to the King's Physicians s a most nutritions, easily digestible, and altogether healthful food. The current loaf that is twenty-four hours old is the best for cutting, and children as well as adults should be allowed the luxury of very thin alices. The main object of this thin slicing is to cut through the currants so that the full benefit of their flavour is given to the bread.

"THE WEDNESDAY ELEVENS." The London Postman's quick rat tat, Now for the news of ball and bat, Sure, thought I, this week I'll see " Wednesday Eleven's " victory. Prophetic thought of lightening speed, t was a victory indeed. Who was it so severely beaten? Reluctant answer, not Cleckheaton. Nor were we overcome with sorrow, oid we desponding moments borrow o, only to runinate awhile And say " Dear me " with doubtful smile Now on our side one stands alone With double figures, t'was kichardson, Who built his score from well drawn plan With Birkby and Beaumont together They beat most shamefully the leather f Taylor and Naylor had done so well A better story we'd have to tell. But " If " that all important word,

If but for this, if but for that, Through all the play I'd take my bat. My little studio shall resound. With praises when the news is found. That how to win a game you know, And losses to the winds you throw. But patience ah ! that wondrous thing Whose bright conclusions pleasure bring And fortune if we wait awhile

Will great you with a winning smile.

In referring to the doings of the team he Nicholson and Bowden cups this season, but had not much striking to record; they had was defeated in the first round of Charity and had a decent team and done fairly well in the Nicholson Cup by Methley United and league, which certainly ought to have been Micklefield respectively. We did better in von had a little more determination been the Bowden Cup, beating East Garforth at shewn. The defeat by Woodlesford at home Garforth by three goals to one and then beat lost two valuable points, and the team should the senior club in the district, Bothwell have beaten Kippax at home having had much White Rose on the Rose ground by 3 goals to the best of the game, but were only able to 2 in the second round, but when we reached make a draw. In the return match with the semi-final we had to succumb to Allerton Allerton Bywater which was practically a Bywater on Methley United ground, by 4 semi-final they were again beaten by no less a goals to one. The chief scorers for the first than 5 goals to ail. Of the 16 matches played team were J. Hobson 23 goals, M. Naylor 13, in the league 10 had been won, 4 lost and 2 H. Dacre 6, J. Atack and E. CARLTON'S BLACK CAT.

A Carlton cat's 'strong weakness' for pigeons resulted in an action in the Leeds County Court, on Friday last. The plaintiff was Tom Brown, stonemason, of Carlton, and he sought to recover from his neighbour, Emmanuel Hudson, joiner, the sum of £2 2s., for five pigeons said to have been destroyed by the latter's black cat. Mr. A. Masser appeared for the plaintiff, and the defendant was represented by Mr. A. Willey. Willie Brown, the plaintiff's twelve-year-old son, went into the witness-box and said that one morning in February he went to the pigeon cote and found the cat, and some dead pigeons on the

> Mr. Masser : Now, tell his Honour why this oat was peculiar and different from any other Witness: It was a long cat with short legs. In answer to Mr Willey, the boy said he was quite sure the cat had only four legs and one say what was the colour of its whiskers. The plaintiff, in answer to Mr. Willey, said hat altogether he had lost 17 pigeons owing to this black cat. They were squeakers.

His Honour: They became squeakers when Mr. Brown further stated that the cat was another like it in Carlton. Eventually Mr. Willey intimated that an

Our English Isle can villages boast. Inland, and around the coast, And as I write so far I see, One Carlton in my memory. The soil itself quite from its birth, a aged like the rest of earth. How old since first it did revolve,

No human brain will e'er resolve.

Antique and rare to look upon,

w buildings stand in wood or stone, No noble river passes thro' With stately ships so fair to view. No ancient church, no ruin grand. With ivy clad, can it command No monkish priest, or knight of old, Of these it can no tale unfold. No ancient king here ever slept, If so, where is the record kept, Where is the man, and does he live. It's members of a Parliament To London yet have to be sent, Vet when it does, in case of need Carlton will then be proud indeed Carltonians are Carltonians still,

But then when fortune turns the tide Why adverse luck you may deride. But Carlton lads win if you can, And be determin'd every man, Among the heroes have a place, Don't be the last in cricket race. C. GIBSON, London.

"OULTON CRICKETERS."

There is a transverse beam indeed It is Oultonian's pride, Its quaint inscription one may read When evesight is applied. Three certury's have their duty done, With truth we may declare, Mid winter's frost and summer's sun Now as a pikestaff 'tis so plain. "I Taylor" was the man, Who wish'd that it should long remain The gable end to span. His tenements they have no proof. Who did the interiors fill, When new, the timber walls and roof And casement window sill. It matters little who they were For be it as it may, Tis certain for the fact is bare No cricket did they play. Of score sheet there is not a scrap, To tell the merry tale, How ancient George had a mishap By knocking off his bail. The quill pluck'd off the wing of swan, As pen t'was never seen. How Bill and Ben for six they ran On Oulton cricket green. Four footed animals did live, And roam at will withal But surely never one did give His hide for cricket ball. The willow, must it be denied, Ne'er wept by marshy flat, To think that it could not provide. The batsman with a bat. But animal and willow tree. Providers now alway, For cricketers, and thousands see The county game to day. The ancient fathers dreamt no dream, So therefore could not tell. When fixing up that famous beam Their sons would play so well. The woodman did not even know, That future Oulton it would show, So good a cricket team. C. GIBSON, London.

To the Editor's of the Rothwell Times, Dear Sirs. We are just about to emerge from our slight winter (as a rule) but we have had rather a keen one for us: we have had four nights frost following, which is reported to have been the longest and heaviest for the past 50 years. But now the almond trees are in full bloom and are a pretty sight. Some white, others pink (bitter and sweet); the grass is now coming along favourably, there being plenty of green feed for cattle and sheep, The lambing this season is a record one, being over 100 per cent. This season has been all pect of a bountiful harvest. Last Saturday I went to the Adelaide Oval to see a football match between the Norwoods and Port Adelaide; they were equal in points prior to the match and are the two best teams we have; so that interest in the contest was keen. We had a beautiful day and had a record attendance for the season, 15,000 being present. After a very interesting contest the H Morgan took 7 wickets for 10 runs: C Ports won, the score being Ports 6-12. Norwoods 5-4, so that the Ports are premiers for For Horbury, A Hill took 1 wicket for 26; the first half,

Of course, I have been interested in the doings of our Alfred Deakin and Co. I can scarcely understand how they (apparently) caught on with the British public, for not one of them are thought great potatoes here. Of course, we all know, that Mr. Deakin is a fluent speaker and is known as the "silver tongued orator"; indeed he can talk for hours without saying much, to use a vulgar Teams representing the above met at Leeds phrase, he is a gas-bag. He certainly did not on Saturday, the homesters winning by 261 represent Australia at the Conference, by a points to 152, only three Oulton players long long way, and many were glad to see that he had been sat upon. Of course, you must have got his measure when he said he was a Protectionist, which means robber. What we require is not protection but freedom. I am glad to see that your Premier is leading the way to freedom so well. Our local Premier is also leading the way to freedom, but in such a manner that we shall be worse slaves when he has got his ideas into Acts of Parliament than now.

Dr. Buck said he agreed with the principle set forth in the circular, but he did not think local bodies had sufficient power to deal with the matter. Periodical inspection by a veterinary surgeon, as was being advised in other local districts, would be a good thing, as they as Medical Officers could not be expected to detect disease in cattle as could such a specialist. It could be done at small cost, provided it could be done legally. Next year he anticipated there would be some legislation to

Last Sunday, October 6th at 3 o'clock in ie afternoon, the 4th session of the above S.A. was inaugurated. The service was pened with the singing of the hymn ... eavenly King, look down from above!" the tune " Hanover," and the goodly company hat had foregathered joined joyfully in swell ing the strains of this fine old tune by D roft. Mr. H. Horner was in charge of the leeting, and after very pleasantly welcoming ie friends to the service, called upon Miss Ethel Blackburn to sing "Angel Land" and this song as also in "The Two Cities." which she gave later, Miss Blackburn excelled erself. The speaker for the afternoon, Mr W. Tattersall, gave a very racy, interesting, and instructive address, taking as the base of s discourse, the mestic letters "P.S.A." Mr. W. H. "HARVEST FESTIVAL AT THE

MANOR HOUSE.

We write of times so long ago,

As sixteen hundred and sixty two

Dame Durden kept the Manor farm,

To feed and keep her flocks from harm

fo reap and sow and dig and plough,

They rose at morn when sang the lark

Her servant maids you must be sure,

Was Kit, the charmer, fair and tall,

ame Durden said I can afford

When from the market I come back

One night when sitting round the board

And Humphrey he has thatch'd the stack

Vith good roast meat and loaves of bread

The serving men they laugh'd and smil'd.

Who carried milking pail.

To morrow night shall see it.

So then ye servant maids of mine.

Make me the brave old kitchen shine and Humphrey put aside your flail

And Kit put by your milking pail

And ye shall dance and sing.

Now see the old oak table spread.

Dame Durden out the apple pie

And Humphry carv'd the beef

Each with his platter highly pil'd,

A long and narrow earthen jug.

he maidens had a lesser mus

With something weak and good.

The great sirloin soon look'd forlorn,

The puddings they were all well nigh

Resembling ship by billows torn. Indeed it was a wreck.

nolish'd like the apple pie,

Dame Durden said 'tis good as gold,

The loaves of bread a speci

With venerable face.

Now we'll observe a custom old,

To thank our Maker 'tis believed,

And this it was the Grace.

Now Dorothy don't giggle so,

And Kit be careful how you go

For I have notic'd many a day,

For anything you break.

The lasses do not them annoy.

And Jack your fiddle bring,

But I will stay I do declare,

The pots get less, you never pay

Now ye good lads vourselves enjoy.

So bring to me my high back'd chair,

C. GIBSON, London.

I'll watch you dance and sing.

So good for what we have received

ame Durden loud did speak,

Clean'd pots and pans and sornb'd the floor,

Things were different then.

She had five serving men.

And oft they did begin.

To get the harvest in.

Such work it did entail.

To give you all a treat.

Yes every useful thing.

For hunger here's relief.

And at his elbow stood

And surely they'd enough to do

And labour'd until it was dark,

"THE OLD BANDSMEN." In eighteen hundred and forty nine, My years (less forty) I call'd them mine But I remember fairly well The incidents which now I tell. The brave old village boasted then o percussion, oh t dear no, By breath and key their notes did flow. Their music-room was at an Inn. And as the weeks went spinning roun Some nights to each were given to sound. The music, well t'was nothing fugal, The leader led by brazen bugle, And I suppose when out he'd worn it, Some years later he had a cornet I see them now with measure'd beat. All in the old familiar street Blowing away with might and main, A well-known Donizetto strain. To see them marching side by side. My youthful heart would beat with pride, And music's ardour how it beam'd. For heroes in the street they seem'd.

The drummer, how he made things hum How grand he beat the old world drum. 'he farmer's son he blew with pride, instrument, the Opheclide. And he who pull'd the mouthpiece shone, Among the rest a brass trombone, A heart as light as summer clow Had he who blew the bugle loud. And unto me with childhood's thought Such music nowhere else was wrought for they could playin time aright, The simple opera music bright And evening parties did enhance, With Roger de Coverley country dance With allegretto, seldom false, When rendering the whirling waltz. But supreme excellence I surmise. They all must have to win a prize, Did these good man make such a bid :

The old church organ in days of yore With worn-out pipes and keys No more its bellows wheeze. Blind David, too, whose fingers press'd Ite ivories in a row.

Like to his organ is at rest No presence can they shew. But melancholy we'll not be Good gracious, dear me, no, Where music is with melody No spirit should be low. For David was a lively man,

For he was postman blind.

He never saw a penny stamp

If with them he'd a mile to tramp

Scarce indeed were missives then

Perhaps he'd say to neighbour, Ben,

I think this must be yours.

Advantages we reap, His postal job compared with now.

The town was fast asleep.

The tallow candle did illume.

The tinder box had place,

And ceilingless were many a room

The snuffers, David in his day

When ofter wanted were astray

And thumbs and fingers burnt,

When stormy winds did blow.

Oh! could we see poor David blind

The good old times some say by far

From Leeds you walk'd by moon and star

And hear him play again.

There was a very good congregation at the above service on Sunday afternoon last, when a few more members were enrolled-the total now reaching to about 100. Mr. Featherstone of Wakefield, was the speaker, and his address on "Neighbourliness," was very much appreciated. Mrs Longthorne, of Leads, sang the solos "It will never grow old," and " The Promise of Life " in a very effective manner. Mr. J. W. Ridyard presided and Mr. H. Nash accompanied. In the evening Mrs. Longthorne rendered a solo and the Rev. Arrowsmith, took his first Sunday appointment at Carlton since commencing his ministry in the circuit.

STRAIGHT TO THE LUNGS.

NEW AND UP-TO-DATE TREATMENT FOR COUGHS, COLDS AND BRONCHITIS Most people have only too good reason to dread the rapid approach of winter, with its fog and frost, snow and sleet, cutting winds and clammy atmosphere. Most of us have suffered from bad colds, winter coughs, tender throats, or sore chests, to say nothing of the fear of pleurisy, pnuemonia, bronchitis and

But Peps, the wonderful medicine compressed into solid tablet form, have robbed winter of al! these terrors. Peps are not only a sure cure for all throat and chest ailments but a certain safeguard against all those colds | J Hargreaves ... and chills which are the gateway of all throat | A Gibson ... and chest troubles. With a box of Peps always handy you may defy coughs, colds, and L Sheldon bronchitis, even in the worst weather. You take a Peps tablet out of the silver jacket in which it is sealed, and place it on the tongue. As the tablet dissolves, powerful healing, strengthening, and germ-destroying fumes arise, and are breathed direct into the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. In this unique fashion the throat and chest are cleared of phlegm and other impurites, lurking germs of disease are destroyed, the membranes injured and inflamed by incessant coughing, are soothed and healing and all the breathing passages strengthened and toned-up. The uselessness of liquid remedies for lung troubles is obvious to all, since it is quite impossible to swallow a liquid into the lungs All liquids pass straight into the stomach, and most old-fashioned cough-mixtures and cough-cures are dangerously loaded with opium, chloral, morphia, and other narcotics and sedatives. Peps are entirely free from these abominable drugs, and are safe alike for young and old. The Peps method of compressing a breath able medicine into solid tablet form is the latest triumph of modern science, and has throat and lung troubles. Pens are praised everywhere by people who have proved their wonderful power in cases shows that season 1907, the eighth year of Colbeck Mills, 101 against Wakefield St John's and 100 against Adwalton. This is certainly an improvement not only pleasing but most creditable to the Club, and it is boned that the improvement will be maintained next season. Special mention should be made of the splendid form shown in the cup tie matches ground for the small total of 51, this total being passed with the loss of only one wicket. This may very largely be attributed to the fine batting of Mr. Geo. Brown, who carried out his bat for a well played 30. It then became a question as to who should be the sup-holders, but, in spite of the keen and somewhat stubborn resistance shown by the Hunslet Moor End Camerons, Robin Hood proved to be by far the better team, thus gaining the honour of winning for the first time

LIVELY MEETING AT BOTHWELL. A public meeting was held in the Rothwell Mechanics' Institute on Friday evening, when a lecture was delivered by Mr. Lewis Williams, of London, on Socialism, and what its result would be on the Empire. Mr. J. S. Charlesworth pre-ided, and he was supported by the

a large attendance The Chairman said Socialism was one of the great questions of the day, and one which was very dangerous. If it were not considered very carefully it would shake the foundations of the Empire Socialism would do away with the confidence between capital and labour. His firm (Messra J. & J. Charlesworth, Ltd.) had every week done all they could to get trade to keep the miners in good work. He asked if the Socialists had ever given them one penny. If they drove his irm away they were sending away the best friend they had in the world. As a firm they had the best interests of the men at heart. The Lecturer, who had a cordial reception said he hoped that after that meeting they would understand the great question o Socialism a little better than they did before. He did not stand before them that evening as a Conservative or a Liberal, and he hardly expected they would take him for a bloated capitalist. He was an ordinary working man, and he knew what it was to have to walk about the streets in search of employment. All that experience helped one considerably in being able to look at the question of Socialism

Chas. Forde's bile beans have earned their world-wide reputation as the finest of all family medicines, solely by their proved value, and the happiness they have given to millions of people-the life-long invalids they have brought to health, the workers, disabled by pain, they have restored to their wage-earning position in life, the homes they have changed from abodes of sickness to bright, cheery family circles. The secret is that Chas. Forde's bile beans cure people thoroughly with cures that are lasting.

Down at the heel out at the toe

I made them just ten years ago.

These are not the original shoes,

If I mistake not twice new soles

Throw them I must into the fire

And yet my lady says I'm clever

Then let her think so I'll be kind

And nought I'll do to spoil her mind.

With lapstone on my knees I'll sing,

Down comes his hammer with a ban

There are the words old Geoffery sang

Then shall my work some pleasure bring

I have a way also a will,

And if I bend to keen desire

Ho! little birds I envy ye

Unlike ye be as free as air.

If ye do then tis in a cage.

Hear my linnet all day long,

Within his prison bars you s

He sings but knows no liberty.

Yet he's content and why not I

Envious thoughts away you fiv

An easy mind doth life prolone

I too will sing my simple song. O. GIBSON, London.

WHY ENDURE SORE THROAT ? PEPS ARE AN IDEAL THROAT TONIC.

Are you one of those unfortunate people who suffer from sore throat whenever you catch cold, or whenever bad weather sets in That is because you have had a sharp attack of sore throat, some time or other, which was never radically cured. It has left a weakness behind: your throat is "touchy"; the delicate membrane is thickened a trifle; your voice is not quite so clear and vigorous. Perhaps it is not so bad as that, but you suffer from a slight huskiness every time the weather changes, or your throat feels weak and relaxed. The best possible treatment is a prompt course of Peps, the wonderful medicine compressed into handy tablet form. Peps are a true throat tonic; soothing, invigorating, antiseptic, and germ-destroying. They are totally different to cheap lozenges and drugladen cough-mixtures. Mr. C. Ellis, 19, Lime Grove, Bideford, member of the 4th V.B. Devon Regimental Band, writes :- " I suffered greatly with a sore and inflamed throat for which I tried many remedies, but nothing did me any good until I tried Peps, which quickly cured me. A friend who has long been troubled with asthma and had caught a bad cold on it, took any real relief. I have recommended Peps to all my chums." Make sure you get the genuine article by seeing the short distinctive title-Peps-on the wrapper, on the box, and on every tablet. Sold only in handy metal boxes, at is 11d and 2s 9d, of all chemi-ts.
